In Memoriam

Allison Faye Bradley

January 5, 1986 – October 4, 2019

- WHEREAS On January 5, 1986 in Detroit, MI, Allison Faye Bradley was gifted to this world where she would go on to become a loving, selfless daughter, sister, niece, aunt, cousin and friend; and
- WHEREAS Allison attended many schools growing up, including Focus Hope, Eaton Academy, Pasteur Elementary and Haley Middle School. She went on to Southfield High School and then matriculated to Jardon Vocational School, all after being diagnosed with special needs very early in her life. Despite many challenges, she always overcame them like a true champion; and
- WHEREAS Allison was a dedicated worker at Royal Oak Beaumont for over twelve years where she served as a volunteer in both the gift shop and the flower shop. Her faithful and tireless work didn't go unnoticed for she was described by everyone alike as the "friendliest person to walk the halls of the hospital"; and
- WHEREAS Allison recently received accommodations from the hospital and random gifts from strangers for her high level of performance on the job. And although her journey was often painful, instead of complaining, she celebrated each day knowing that her work mattered to those she blessed with her presence, for giving joy was truly her heart's desire and life's work; and
- WHEREAS Allison had a love of great cuisine and enjoyed being her mom's sous chef. She was an avid traveler and always championed for family vacations. She was a huge football fan and had a great love for life, her family and friends; and
- WHEREAS God in his infinite wisdom, has seen fit to move Allison Faye Bradley from our midst, we pay our respects to the memory of one whose life was full of love and now was called to join him in heaven; THEREFORE, LET IT BE
- RESOLVED That Councilwoman Janeé L. Ayers and the entire Detroit City Council express heartfelt sympathy and extends condolences to his family. "If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." John 14:3
